Oil drops $2 on Covid rise in Asia, inflation fears

SCOTT DISAVINO
New York, May 19

OIL PRICES DROPPED over $2 a barrel Wednesday on renewed demand concerns as concern over fears rising inflation might lead the US Federal Reserve to raise interest rates, which could limit economic growth.

Prices fell even though US data showed a smaller-than-expected build in crude inventories and a bigger-than-expected decline in gasoline stockpiles.

Brent futures fell $2.62, or 3.8%, to $66.09 a barrel by 11:15 am EDT (1515 GMT). It settled 1.1% lower on Tuesday after briefly climbing to a 10-week high over $70 during the session.

The West Texas Intermediate (WTI) crude fell $2.73, or 4.2%, to $62.76. Earlier in the day WTI was down over 5%.

The US Energy Information

SOUTHBOUND

- Prices retreat from recent high on renewed demand concerns
- US crude stocks rise less than expected in last week
- US dollar rises from January low on inflation worries

Administration (EIA) said crude inventories rose 1.3 million barrels last week versus an expected 1.6 million barrel increase, while gasoline inventories dropped 2.0 million barrels versus an expected 0.9 million barrel decline.

The American Petroleum Institute (API) group late Tuesday reported similar data late on Tuesday.

On Tuesday, Brent's rise to $70 came as oil prices with the oil market would surge with the reopening of the US and European economies. It retreated on fears of slowing fuel demand in Asia where surging COVID-19 cases prompted new restrictions in India, Taiwan, Vietnam and Thailand. Rumors of progress in the Iran nuclear talks also hit prices for awhile on Tuesday, sparking concern that supply would soon come on the market.

"While optimism surrounding the economic recovery in the West helped drive Brent to $70, the move has proven unsustainable and will not irrational given the COVID picture in Asia," said OANDA market analyst Sophie Griffiths.

Maharashtra farmers worried over rising prices of fertilisers

FE BUREAU
Pune, May 19

FARMERS IN MAHARASHTRA

have raised concerns over rising prices of fertilisers, and sought help from the government ahead of the upcoming sowing season as prices have increased by ₹600-700 per bag, higher by 55% compared to the previous month.

Official at the agriculture department said prices in the domestic market have gone up as phosphatic and potassic (P&K) fertilisers have become dearer in the international market.

According to senior industry people, chemical fertilisers are rarely produced in India. Most of the raw materials have to be imported and only ready-made fertilisers like DAP are imported. Potash is not available in our country and has to be imported from Israel, Jordan and Canada.

The DAP fertilizer of IFFCO is now priced at ₹1,900 per bag. The previous price was ₹1,300 per bag. Similarly, the price of NPK 10.20.26 has gone up from ₹1,100 per bag to ₹1,500 per bag and prices of NPK 12.22.16 have risen to ₹1,250 per bag from ₹1,200 per bag.

Maharashtra agriculture minister Dabhol Bhaje said the state had written to the Centre to reduce prices. Notably, the Centre recently said it was considering subsidies to offset rise in global prices of raw materials of P&K fertilisers in a bid to ensure their availability to farmers at subsidised rates across the country.

GST Council may take up plea on lowering general interest rates

States believe falling interest rate regime justifies demand from all quarters

BusinessLine
Neha Joshi, May 19
The GST Council, which is meeting on May 19, is expected to consider lowering general rates of interest, particularly between general interest charges (GIC), which are levied on top payment of tax or claiming excess input tax credit (ITC).

An aim, these rates vary between 6 per cent and 26 per cent. However, during last financial year and even this fiscal, the Finance Ministry lowered the rates of even higher rates of 10 per cent for a limited period. A senior Finance Ministry official said that it was felt that the rates were too high and it was decided not to issue more bonds but from India's bid.

States believe that this can be considered as it would encourage states to bring down their registered rates of interest by up to two per cent. Experts feel that the demand for lower rates is coming from all quarters.

Mr. Bhagat Singh, Partner at PwC India, said that there can be taken down interest rates on late payment penalties on various countries like Australia, Russia and Switzerland have gone to lower rates under the same range from 4-7 per cent (or an even lower rate) than the interest rates to much smaller than the developed nations, and this is what they could be taking into account. This could be taken down to around one per cent from current rates from India's bid.

Easy challenges
Rajesh Gupta, Co-founder & CEO with Rishabh Accounting Software, said lowering general interest rates is going to be a positive initiative by the GST council. If the interest rates are regular basis proposed by the government, it will also support the view of lowering the interest rates to a longer term period, while the smaller ones will be within extension of the period for making payment for a limited time period to a few months. Mr. Gupta said, "We have taken a look at the terms and conditions in terms of growth and performance. Therefore, to support the efficient business demands, the government should consider the move as a preventive measure to give the much-needed stimulus to the businesses during the tough times," Gupta said.

Govt hikes DAP subsidy to ₹1,200 per bag

BusinessLine

Vinita Joshi, May 19
The government on Wednesday decided to increase the subsidy available on Anhydrous Phosphate (DAP) to ₹1,200 from the existing ₹600 to support farmers during the kharif season.

Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman informed the Lok Sabha that the decision was taken to increase the subsidy to ₹1,200 from ₹600.

Currently, ₹600 per tonne of phosphate rock is being provided to farmers through the Kisan Urja Kendra (KUK).

Recently, the International prices of phosphate rock, ammonia and urea used in DAP had gone up by 40-50 per cent. As a result, the actual cost of a tonne of DAP had gone up to ₹2,400 from ₹1,200 last year.

A higher subsidy was proposed by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Wednesday, however, decided to increase the subsidy on DAP to ₹1,200 per bag from the existing ₹600 per bag. The decision will continue to give DAP at a price of ₹1,200 per bag.

As a result, the government, which spends ₹60,000 crore in fertilizer subsidies alone, will have to shell out an additional ₹7,279 crore for the kharif season alone.
